

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Quote of the Day:

Think 100 times before you take a decision, but once that decision is taken, stand by it as one man.

--Quaid-e-Azam Mohammad Ali Jinnah
(Founder of Islamic Republic of Pakistan)

IDEOLOGY & CONSTITUTION OF PAKISTAN

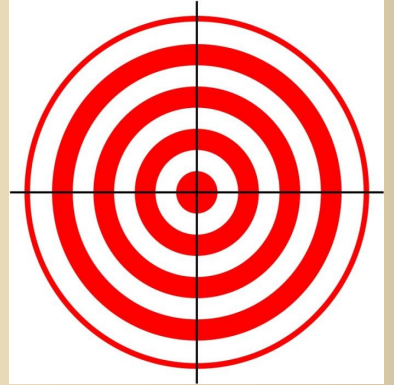

Agenda (Class-1)

- Introduction and Aims of the Course
- Teaching Methodology and Assessment Criteria
- British Colonialism in Sub-continent

Aims of the Course

- Understand historical background of Sub-continent in the context of Colonial British Rule
- Comprehend the concept, struggle for Pakistan on the basis of 2-Nation Theory
- Grasp, analyse political & constitutional events of Pakistan from 1947 to date
- Understand Pakistani culture & society
- Understand Pakistan's foreign policy and its geopolitical significance in an ever-changing globe

Teaching Methodology

- Topic-based interactive lectures (online and/or physical)
- Analytical discussions among students
- Group presentations
- Reference studies on course topics from articles, books and research papers

--continued

Assessment Criteria

- Final Exams: 50 marks
- Mid-term Exams: 30 marks (15 x 2)
- Quizzes and Assignments: 10 marks
- Presentation: 5 marks
- Class participation: 5 marks

-- continued

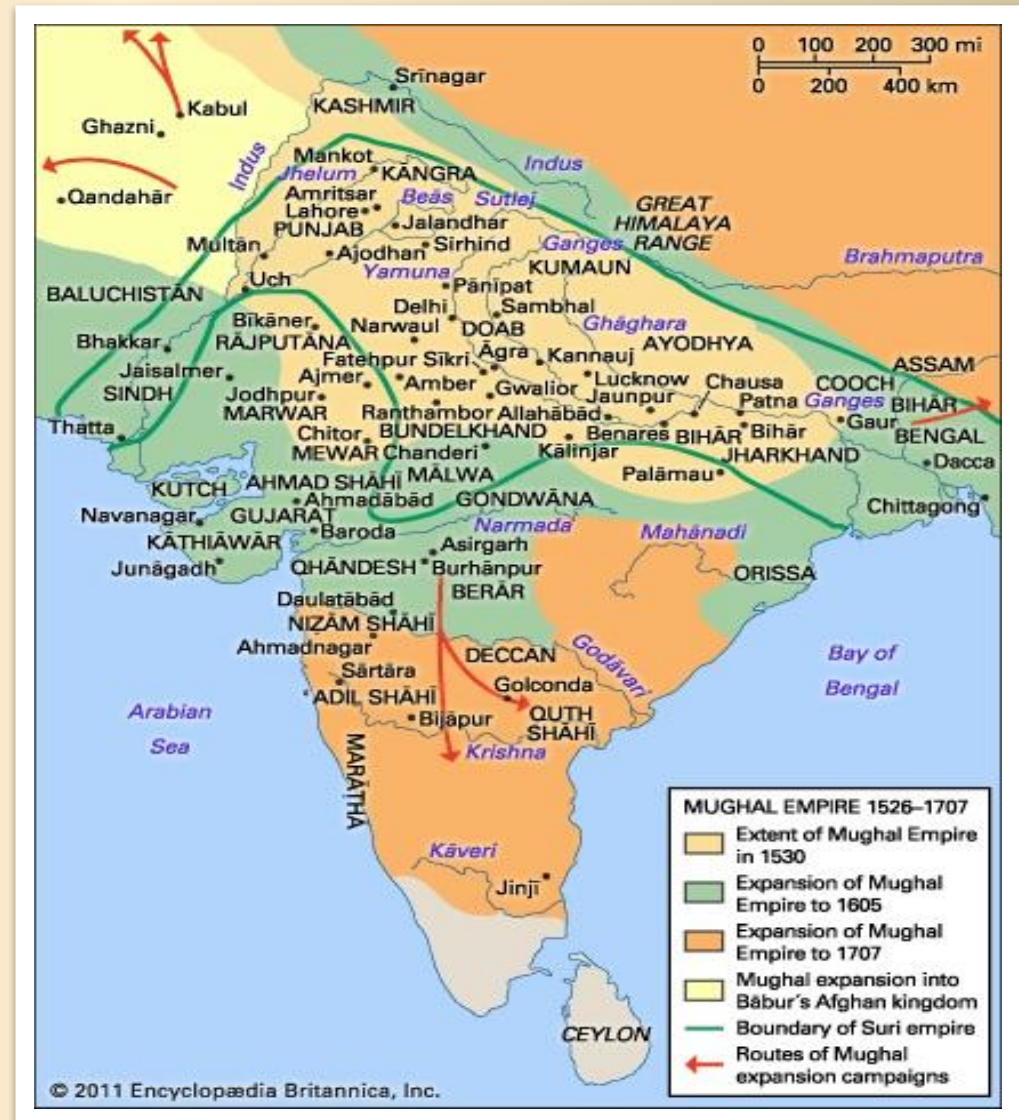

British Empire

- British Empire ruled over huge areas across the globe, including the Sub-continent (current S. Asia), from late 16th century to around mid 20th century
- In 19th and early 20th century, the empire was in control of around one-fourth of the whole world

Mughal Empire

- The Mughal Empire which had ruled over the Sub-continent since 1526, after the death of Emperor Aurangzeb Alamgir in 1707, gradually became weak in several parts across the Sub-continent

British East India Company

- The EIC was formed for trading with South & East Asian regions
- The EIC started trading with the Sub-continent in 1608
- In 1615, Mughal Emperor Nur-ud-din Salim Jahangir (1605-27) allowed the EIC to set up factories and trade in Gujarat
- Meanwhile the EIC, which was formed in 1600, steadily gained foothold in several regions of

British Empire in Sub-continent

